San Francisco, December 9, 2019 – Producer/Director Rick Quan will deliver his completed educational documentary honoring the life and achievements of Y. C. Hong, a leading figure in the history and development of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance (C.A.C.A.), by December 31, 2019. Y. C. Hong, the second Chinese American licensed to practice law in California and the first to earn a law degree from University of Southern California (USC) Law School, specialized in immigration law during the Chinese Exclusion period. He advocated for equality, justice, and civil rights for our community. Mr. Hong argued more than 7,000 cases and testified before Congressional and Presidential committees to seek repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act (1882) and the Chinese War Brides Act (1946). His work may have directly affected a separated family's ability to reunite in America, naturalize, and pursue the American dream.
